submitted for recordation in the United States Patent and Trademark Office on January 5, 2000. A copy of the as-filed assignment together with the date-stamped postcard receipt is attached hereto.

To obviate a double patenting rejection, assignee hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 U.S.C. §§ 154 to 156 and 173, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, of any patent granted on copending patent Application No. 09/424,119 (filed on January 5, 2000), Assignee hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and any patent granted on the copending patent application are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, Assignee does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. §§ 154 to 156 and 173 of any patent granted on the copending patent application, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, in the event that any patent granted on the copending patent application later expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee, is held unenforceable, is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, is statutorily disclaimed in whole or in part, is terminally disclaimed under 37 C.F.R. § 1.321, has all claims canceled by a reexamination certificate, is reissued, or is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.
